Wales Weightlifting Federation Code of Ethics

Inherent within all professional organisations is the potential for conflicts of interest, harassment, abuse of power, and other forms of unethical practice. Through the establishment of a Code of Ethics, Weightlifting Wales has defined a set of guidelines to promote and protect the spirit of the sport, safeguard the best interest of the participants, and establish and maintain standards of behavior. The Code is not intended to serve as a set of rules, but rather, to outline general principles and guidelines of aspirational virtues and proper ethical behavior for all members, volunteers, staff and any other individuals and organisations that chose to be members of Weightlifting Wales.

The definition of ethical behavior is having an understanding of the difference between right and wrong and at all times choosing to do what is right. This definition should be applied at the individual level to those within the Weightlifting Wales umbrella: employees, volunteers or individuals who represent Weightlifting Wales within the community at large, as well as the corporate level pertaining to the actions of Weightlifting Wales, as an organisation. Ethical considerations are integral, not optional, elements of all sports activities and apply to all levels of participation. Weightlifting Wales encourages all members to acknowledge and follow ethical guidelines and demonstrate integrity by voluntarily agreeing to adhere to this code.

Participation in the sport of Weightlifting and Powerlifting is a powerful vehicle for a participant's personal growth and development, teaching the value of respect, fairness, teamwork, communication, responsibility, truthfulness, non-discrimination, honesty and integrity. These values serve as the core ideals for the Weightlifting Wales Code of Ethics.

Respect

A key component of ethical behavior is respect, which is defined at the individual, team and corporate levels. Individuals should value the opinions, views and roles of others who work to further the aims of the organisation. All should safeguard the dignity, privacy and freedom of individuals regardless of their race, color, creed, socio-economic status, age, gender, religion, sexual orientation, disability or nationality.

Respect defines the value that Weightlifting Wales, as an organisation, places on honoring the history of the sport, and demonstrates the regard it shows to the partners that have come together to form Weightlifting Wales to further the growth and development of the sport.

Fairness

Fairness is making decisions without favoritism or prejudice. Weightlifting Wales firmly believes that the concept of fairness is fundamental to sport. Anything that creates an unfair advantage violates the spirit, as well as the integrity, of the sport of Weightlifting.

Teamwork

Teamwork is defined as a cooperative or coordinated effort on the part of a group of individuals who work collectively in the interest of a common goal.

Communication

Communication is an attempt by individuals to create shared understanding. Communication is an active ‘two-way street,’ requiring a balance of articulating, listening, writing, reading, observing, questioning, analyzing, and evaluating. Communication is verbal, nonverbal, or written, sent through various media, and transmits a thought provoking idea, gesture, or action. Weightlifting Wales members, employees and those individuals or groups representing Weightlifting Wales, should communicate with clarity, honesty, timeliness, and openness. Communication should include all pertinent information shared transparently with all appropriate recipients. Clear, honest, timely communication allows collaboration and cooperation to occur, building a stronger game and community for sport.

Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest is present in any instance in which the actions or activities of an individual representing or acting on behalf of Weightlifting Wales could result in actual or perceived personal gain or advantage, and/or have an adverse effect on the interests, aims or integrity of Weightlifting Wales. Individuals who represent and serve Weightlifting Wales, at all levels have a duty to disclose any business or financial interest or personal obligation that may, actually or perceptually, affect the independence of their judgment. There are more specific guidelines on conflict of interests in Weightlifting Wales policies and procedures.

Legality

All members of Weightlifting Wales, its staff, and volunteers are obligated to comply with all applicable rules and policies. Violation is not tolerated. Weightlifting Wales reserves the right to review such violations, which may result in disciplinary action or withdrawal of member status.

Weightlifting Wales has a duty to provide positive influence over sports administrators, programmes, officials, coaches, and lifters. The goal of Weightlifting Wales, in creating Wales Weightlifting Federation Ltd
